Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request dated Apr. 08, 2016, regarding your tax-exempt status.

We issued you a determination letter in February 1948, recognizing you as tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3).

Our records also indicate you're not a private foundation as defined under IRC Section 509(a) because you're described in IRC Section 509(a)(2).

Donors can deduct contributions they make to you as provided in IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts under IRC Sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

In the heading of this letter, we indicated whether you must file an annual information return. If a return is required, you must file Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-N, or 990-PF by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. IRC Section 6033(j) provides that, if you don't file a required annual information return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you have questions, call 1-877-829-5500 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., local time, Monday through Friday (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific Time).

Re: "Seize the Awkward PSA"

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to confirm that "Ad Council" has retained "Teenager LLC" to produce the "Seize the Awkward PSA" on our behalf, filming on the 23rd of August 2019.

This project is a video conversation between Cara Delavigne and Halsey about their own experiences with mental health. It is meant to encourage their audiences to identify and reach out to people in their own circles who may be struggling with their mental health. The video is part of the Seize the Awkward public service announcement campaign with the same message and ultimate goal to inspire young people to learn more and actively engage with their friends on their struggles with mental health.

Any fees waived and/or reduced for this project by FilmL.A. on behalf of the Hollywood Hills will result in an equivalent reduction in cost to "The Ad Council".
